She saw the wolf lying in her granny's bed.

She asked Oh granny, what big eyes you have!

The wolf said," So that I can see you better,"

She asked," Granny what big ears you have!

Wolf said," So that I can hear you better."

She asked," Granny what big nose you have!

Wolf said," So that I can smell you better."

She again asked," Granny what big teeth you have!

Wolf said," So that I can eat you better."

Then she got scared and starting shouting for help. Help Me! Help Me! The woodsman was chopping the trees heard the scream and ran toward to help her.

He ran to the house and saw the wolf attacking the girl.

He hit the wolf over the head and this made the wolf open his mouth and shout. And the granny jumped out!
